Guest student status
Add Sections 15-16 of HKR

Section 5

(1) The Faculty provides part-time training opportunities for its students at other higher education institutions, including foreign universities, and for students enrolled in other higher education institutions at the Faculty. The students pursuing partial studies shall enter into a guest student status and enrol for the given semester.

(2) The Faculty informs students about some of the part-time training opportunities abroad, except for those under the ERASMUS+ agreement. Proposals submitted under the ERASMUS+ programme are ranked by the ERASMUS Committee of the Faculty taking into account the students' academic achievements and foreign language competence.

(3) The Credit Transfer Committee gives students of other higher education institutions permission to pursue part-time studies upon a written and duly reasoned application.

(4) If a student of the Faculty wishes to pursue partial studies at another higher education institution, he or she shall obtain a pre-approval for credit transfer for the subjects he to be acknowledged under part-time training.

(5) The application by the student of the Faculty shall be addressed to the Credit Transfer Committee, of another institution or another faculty to the Academic Committee and submitted to the Dean's Office no later than the end of the registration week of the semester concerned. The Academic Committee shall make its decision within eight working days and inform the student in writing.

Amended by the Senate Resolution No. 165/2017, effective as of 1 July 2017.
(6) In the case of a student with guest student status, the actual fee to be paid shall be calculated as follows: the tuition fee for the specialisation and programme announced in the admission procedure for the given academic year divided by 30 credits multiplied by the credit value of the courses taken.

(7) The fees for establishing guest student status are laid down in Annex 1.

CHAPTER II
EXERCISING STUDENT RIGHTS AND FULFILLING OBLIGATIONS

Submission of Applications
Add Section 18 of HKR

Section 7

The applications listed in the annex of the present regulations (for special permission granted by the dean, establishing guest status) shall be submitted on paper to the Dean’s Office.

Chapter III

until the Dean’s mandate from among the full-time academic staff having academic degrees in employment relationship with the University.

(2) On behalf of the Faculty Student Union, two students are elected by the Student Union to participate in the work of the Committees for a period of one year.

(3) The Committees only act at the written, duly reasoned application supported by a certified course syllabus submitted by the student of the Faculty. The application shall contain a copy of the registration course book and the certificate of completion.
Credit transfer applications shall be submitted to the Dean’s Office no later than the end of the third week of the examination period prior to the course registration. As for first year students, application deadline is the end of the registration week. In certain cases requiring special consideration, the Credit Transfer Committee has the authority to make decisions on applications submitted beyond the deadline.

(4) The administrator of the Dean's Office shall be responsible for preparing the meetings of the committee, briefing on the cases and drafting the resolutions, with the right of consultation at meetings. The Dean's Office and the Student Centre shall ensure the implementation of the decisions.

(5) Credit transfer applications submitted by students of another institution may be processed if the fees laid down in Annex 1 of the present regulations are paid within seven days of submitting the application. The deadline set for paying the fees is excluded from the deadline for processing time limit.

(6) The committee has a quorum when at least 50% of the members are present. Further rules pertaining to the operation of the committees are set out by the committees themselves.

(7) Appeal claims against the decisions of the committees may be lodged to the Student Appeals Board.

Academic calendar

Add Paragraph (2) of Section 35 of HKR

Section 11

At the request of the student, the head of the department may allow examinations to be held at weekends or on holidays during the examination period with the approval of the departmental meeting.

Individual Study and Examination Schedule

Add Section 40 of HKR

Section 12

(1) Individual study and examination schedule as well as individual preparation may be requested under personal circumstances requiring special consideration. In particular:
health reasons, employment, participation in parallel studies and additional studies, and studies or work abroad. Rules pertaining to students pursuing partial studies abroad are contained in the ERASMUS regulations of the Faculty.

11 Amended by the Senate Resolution No. ..../2018, effective as of 1 January 2019.
12 Amended by the Senate Resolution No. 179/2016, effective as of 1 July 2016.
13 Adopted by the Senate Resolution No. 280/2017, effective as of 1 January 2018.
14 Amended by the Senate Resolution No. 179/2016, effective as of 1 July 2016.
Individual study schedule may be requested for a maximum of ten subjects to be completed in individual preparation excluding courses to be completed by examination only (CV course). Graduate students who are required to complete a maximum of five subjects in order to obtain the pre-degree certificate are exempt from this rule.

It is the responsibility of the student to consult the lecturer prior to submitting an application for individual study schedule.

Applications after obtaining the lecturer’s opinion shall be submitted to the dean’s office until the end of the first week of the study period. If the underlying cause of the request arises after the first week of the study period, the application may be submitted within three days of the cause or its termination, in compliance with the rules of procedure.

Decisions on applications are made by the Academic Committee during the second week of the study period or in case of an application filed beyond deadline within fifteen days after submission. The committee takes into consideration the applicant’s reasons and the justifying certificates, academic achievement, opinion of the heads of the relevant departments as well as the interests of the Faculty. Individual study schedule is granted if upon submission the applicant has fulfilled the obligation to pay the tuition fee and he or she has no outstanding debt to the institution.

Applications for individual study and examination schedule shall be submitted in electronic form via Neptun by deadline. Students may take an individual study schedule examination if they have registered for the examination via Neptun.

Examination period
Add Section 51 of HKR

Section 13

The lecturer in charge shall determine the examination dates to cater for at least 150% of the number of students who have registered for the subject and obtained a signature. In the case of an oral examination, at least two exam days per week of the exam period shall be offered, but in the case of courses where the number of students registered for the course is less than 30, it is sufficient for the department to provide one oral exam per week. In the case of a written examination, the department shall provide students with at least one examination date per week.

Order of Examinations
Add Section 52 of HKR

Section 14

The student registered for the exam is required to appear at the place and time designated by the department, in appropriate clothing, and in a suitable condition for taking the exam. The instructor is assisted by the administrative officer of the institute.

(2) If a student fails to make use of the scheduled exam dates, the department is not required to set additional dates.

Special permission granted by the dean

Add Sections 60 and 61

Section 15

(1) Exercising the right to grant special permission means that beyond the three examination occasions the dean may give permission on one occasion per semester at most for make-up work to resit or improve an examination or final examination grade, to obtain a signature as well as to obtain or improve a seminar grade in one subject during the end of the second week of the examination period.

(2) In the case of a special permission granted by the dean, the student is required to pay the fee specified in Section 124 of HKR.

The thesis

Add Section 64 of HKR

Section 16

(1) The rules of procedure pertaining to the objectives, preparation and defence of the thesis are contained in the Regulations for preparing a thesis and a term paper.

(2) A student who has submitted his or her thesis to the Dean’s office during the semester of obtaining the pre-degree certificate but has not defended it, or has attended the consultations, but the thesis has not been submitted, may submit and defend the thesis in subsequent semesters on condition that the supervisor reviews the thesis in advance. The student shall consult the supervisor by 31 January in case of a defence in the spring semester and by 31 May in case of a defence in the autumn semester.

(3) Students establishing student status after 1 September 2012 may be required to prepare and submit a new thesis two years after obtaining the pre-degree certificate based on the supervisor’s opinion.

(4) A student paying tuition fee in proportion to the credits shall pay the credit value of the thesis once only, even in case of multiple registration.

(5) If the thesis, or part of it contains confidential information, the student may request confidential treatment until the date of the last consultation at the latest after the presentation of the Agreement of Confidential Treatment with the relevant company/institution and the written support of the supervisor.

24 Adopted by the Senate Resolution No. 179/2016, effective as of 1 July 2016.
Final examination
Add Section 65 of HKR

Section 17

(1) A student may be granted permission to take the final examination if he or she has successfully defended his or her thesis with at least a pass (2) qualification.

(2) While having student status, students may take the final examination in the examination period following the issue of the pre-degree certificate, and after the termination of student status, they may take it pursuant to the current academic requirements.

(3) While having student status, students establishing student status after 1 September 2012 may take the final examination in the examination period following the issue of the pre-degree certificate, after the termination of student status, they may take it within two years in any examination period pursuant to the current academic requirements. Following the passing of the second year upon the issue of the pre-degree certificate, the academic and examination regulations may determine conditions for taking the final examination. Following the passing of the fifth year of the termination of the student status, no final examination may be taken.

(4) Final examinations - except for the undivided law programme - are conducted by the Dean's Office of the Faculty. Final examinations for the undivided law programme are organised by the office of the institute responsible of the final examination subjects.

(5) Students register for the final examination via Neptun during the period of application.

(6) Calculation of qualification of the final examination and diploma in each specialisation are set out in Annex 10.

Resitting an unsuccessful final examination
Add Section 68 of HKR

Section 18

(1) As a rule, the final examination or a part of it may only be resat in the following final examination period.

The condition for resitting the final examination is paying the fee for resit or absence.

(3) Attendance at the resit of a final examination is regulated by the Academic Committee as follows.
If a final examination subject is missing to obtain the diploma, upon the student’s written and duly reasoned request, he or she may be granted the resit of a final examination subject failed or missed through no fault of his or her own in the same final examination period. The application shall be submitted to the competent administrator of the Dean's Office after the last final examination in the law programme while in the case of a complex final examination, on the working day after the final examination.

Rules pertaining to resitting an unsuccessful final examination:

(a) The student can have five attempts at the final examinations (the fourth being the special consideration granted by the dean, the fifth being the special consideration granted by the rector if he or she has not taken all the opportunities for special consideration granted by the rector available while having student status. The special consideration granted by the rector is valid for the semester in which it is requested; it cannot be used in a subsequent final examination period.

(b) If a student has taken all the opportunities for resiting a final examination subject - including the special consideration granted by the rector - he or she can register for a resit final examination in case he or she has retaken the lectures in the failed final examination subject and submitted the certificate of completion to the competent administrator of academic affairs of the Student Centre.

(c) While having student status, students may take the final examination in the examination period following the semester the pre-degree certificate is obtained, while after the termination of student status, they may take it without deadline, in any examination period pursuant to the current academic requirements. Following the passing of the seventh year upon obtaining the pre-degree certificate, the Council of the Faculty may define conditions for taking the final examination.

This provision shall be applied to students establishing student status after 1 September 2012 falling under the Act on National higher education by way of derogation that following the passing of the second year upon the issue of the pre-degree certificate, the Council of the Faculty may determine conditions for taking the final examination, as well as following the passing of the fifth year upon the termination of student status, no final examination may be taken.

(d) Non-attendance at the final examination shall be reported two days prior to the exam.

(e) In case of unjustified absence from the final examination, no resit can be taken. Resit fee is payable pursuant to the HKR in the following cases: unjustified absence from the final examination, each resit of the final examination, special considerations granted by the dean and the rector.

Amended by the Senate Resolution No. 280/2017, effective as of 1 January 2018.

Adopted by the Senate Resolution No. 179/2016, effective as of 1 July 2016.
The calculation of the final examination score and the qualification of the diploma regarding each specialisation is found in Appendix 10 of the present regulations.

Resit of final examination in order to get a better grade

Add Section 69 of HKR

Section 19

(1) In case of a successful final examination, students shall have the right to improve their achievement in one subject/part of the final examination on the make-up day during the same final examination period. A written application shall be submitted to the Dean's Office after the final examination in the law programme while in the case of a complex final examination on the working day after the final examination. Improving the achievement of the final examination is free of charge.

(2) The grade obtained at the resit final examination shall be calculated into the qualification of the diploma even if it is worse than the previously obtained grade.

Diploma

Add Sections 70 and 75 of HKR

Section 21

(1) Upon written application and payment of the fee defined by the Council of the Faculty, an ornamented diploma is prepared and issued to students of the law programme.

(2) An ornamented diploma is only issued if the student is eligible to the diploma defined in the relevant law and academic and outcome requirements.

(3) A diploma supplement is prepared and issued pursuant to Annex 2 of the HKR to students who graduated from the undivided, Master’s and Bachelor’s programmes as well as the higher education vocational training in law after meeting the requirements defined in Section 75 of the KHKR.

Payment of Fees

Add Section 124 of HKR

Section 25

(1) Students may request the issue of certificates, copies or duplicates etc. at the Student Centre and the Dean’s Office. The applications to be submitted to the Faculty are available in the annexes of the present regulations, further applications are available on the website of the Student Centre under menu item Forms. Fees related to the applications are laid down in the university academic requirements and Annex 1 of the present regulations.

(2) Those with NEPTUN access shall pay the service fee through the NEPTUN system based on the entry issued by an authorized administrator of the Dean's Office, prior to the issuance of the certificate.
