

Call for Applications

Within the framework of the Pannónia Scholarship Programme, the University of Miskolc announces a call for applications for long-term study mobilities for students for the 2026/2027 academic year, autumn semester.

Objective of the call:

The purpose of this call is to provide students of the University of Miskolc with the opportunity to study abroad with the support of a scholarship.

Eligibility criteria:

Applications are open to students of the University of Miskolc holding an active student status.

Application procedure:

Step 1: Declaration of intent to apply

Students planning to submit an application are required to declare their intent in advance by completing the Declaration of Intent to Apply form. Failure to do so will render the student ineligible to submit an application.

Step 2: Submission of the application

Only applicants whose proposals are endorsed at faculty level are eligible to submit their application.

Eligible activities

Within the framework of this call, the following activities are eligible for support:

Long-term student mobilities:

- Study mobility (2–5 months):
For Bachelor, Master, single-cycle, and Doctoral students with at least one completed semester.
Deadline for declaration of intent: 12 April 2026
Declaration of Intent to Apply Form: <https://forms.office.com/e/F9jfA6zLts>
Application submission deadline: 01 August 2026
Application platform: <https://forms.office.com/e/VcqYNntLxP>
Mobility period: Autumn semester of the 2026/2027 academic year

Host institution

Pannónia study mobilities may be carried out on the basis of any institutional bilateral agreement (Pannónia, Erasmus+, MoU). The partner university confirms its willingness to host the student by co-signing the student's Learning Agreement.

The list of partner institutions is available through the Declaration of Intent to Apply Form and the Application platform.

Eligibility criteria

- Students must hold active student status at the University of Miskolc throughout the entire application and mobility period, i.e. they must be pursuing a degree programme leading to the award of a diploma.
- Students holding a Stipendium Hungaricum (SH) or a Scholarship for Christian Young People (SCYP) grant are not eligible to apply for long-term mobility.
 - SCYP: Operational Regulations III. 9.2
 - SH: Operational Regulations III. 3. 5. f
- The application must be academically endorsed by the student's faculty through the co-signature of the Learning Agreement. The application must pass the institutional formal compliance check.
- The applicant must upload to the application platform a document certifying the host institution's willingness to host (e.g. signed Learning Agreement)
- The applicant must possess the level of language proficiency required by the host institution.
- A maximum of 12 months of mobility abroad may be undertaken during one study cycle; in the case of single-cycle programmes, the maximum duration is 24 months.
- Before commencing the mobility, the student must upload the fully signed Learning Agreement to the application platform. By signing, the faculty confirms that the activities carried out abroad will be accepted and fully recognised as part of the curriculum, proportionally to the duration of the mobility. The activities pursued during the mobility must be in line with the student's study plan.
- For mobilities within Europe, students must obtain a European Health Insurance Card. For mobilities outside Europe, students are required to arrange valid health insurance in the host country for the entire mobility period.
- At the end of the mobility period, before returning home, the student must request a document from the host institution certifying the completion of the mobility. This document must be uploaded to the reporting platform within 30 days after the end of the mobility.
- Following the scholarship period, the student must submit a report via the reporting platform, detailing the activities and outcomes of the mobility.

Application process

1. The applicant shall review the eligibility criteria and the required documentation based on the call for applications available on the University of Miskolc website.
2. Students intending to submit an application are required to declare their intent in advance by completing the Declaration of Intent to Apply form (12 April 2026), with a deadline of 01 August 2026. Failure to do so will render the student ineligible to submit an application.
3. Students who complete the Declaration of Intent to Apply form will be contacted via email by the faculty coordinator with further instructions.
4. If endorsed by the applicant's faculty, the student may proceed with submitting the application and the required attachments (Step 2).

Mandatory attachments for application submission

- Learning Agreement \(LA\), signed by the applicant and the faculty.
- Certificate of active student status.
- Only partner higher education institutions are eligible as host institutions.

Method of application submission (Step 2)

Applications must be submitted by completing the application form and uploading the required attachments via the online application platform.

- The data and documents uploaded to the application platform will be formally checked by the Centre for International Affairs (hereinafter: IRO) of the University of Miskolc. Applicants will be notified of any deficiencies to be corrected.
- Applicants will be informed by IRO via email about the outcome of the application. In the case of a successful application, the notification will also include the amount of the awarded grant and further instructions.
- In accordance with the University of Miskolc's Regulations on Foreign Assignments and Hosting of Guests, the applicant must complete Document No. 1 and Annex 1/A, and submit them to the Dean's Office for approval. The faculty will register the documents and forward them to IRO.
- The applicant must book an appointment with the IRO officer to conclude the grant agreement.
- Prior to the conclusion of the grant agreement, the applicant must send the insurance documents by email to the IRO.
- The grant agreement will be concluded at IRO.
- Once all documents are fully signed and submitted, the transfer of funds will be requested by the IRO.

Provision of false information

Applicants submitting false data or documents will be excluded from the application process.
