

Privacy Notice
on the transfer of international students' data by the University of Miskolc to the National Directorate-General for Aliens Policing

The University of Miskolc (hereinafter: University or data controller) processes the personal data of natural persons in accordance with the provisions of the relevant legislation – in particular Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR), Act CXII of 2011 (Information Act), Act CCIV of 2011 (NHE Act), and Government Decree 87/2015 (IV. 9.) (Implementing Decree).

I Purpose of the Privacy Notice

The purpose of this Privacy Notice (hereinafter: Notice) is to present, in a comprehensive and transparent manner, the processing of data transferred by the University's Internationalization Center to the National Directorate-General for Aliens Policing (hereinafter: NDGAP / OIF), which serves to facilitate and accelerate the visa and residence permit procedures for international students (hereinafter: data subjects).

This Notice describes the processing of the data subjects' personal data by the data controller, the legal basis and purpose of the processing, the duration of the data processing, the contact details of the data controller and the data protection officer, the rights of the data subjects, the methods for exercising them, and the available legal remedies.

II Contact details of the data controller and data protection officer

Details of the data controller:

Data controller's name: University of Miskolc (controller or University)

Responsible organisational unit: Internationalization Center (hereinafter: IC)

Registered office and mailing address: 3515 Miskolc, Egyetemváros

Institutional ID No.: FI87515

Telephone number +36 (46) 565-111

Represented by Prof. Dr Horváth Zita, Rector

Details of the data protection officer:

Officer's name: Dr Salamon-Somlyai Dóra

Contact details: adatvedelem@uni-miskolc.hu

III Legal basis, duration of data processing, and the scope of processed data

- III1 The legal basis for data processing is the data subject's voluntary consent pursuant to Article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR. Consent is provided via a separate declaration on the DreamApply platform when entering data, which concerns the consent to transfer the data to the NDGAP.
Please be informed that your consent is voluntary and you may withdraw it at any time without any consequences, which will not affect the admission or administrative process.
- III2 The duration of data storage lasts until the data subject withdraws their consent or until the purpose of the data processing is achieved.
- III3 Scope of the data processed: Name, date of birth, nationality, name and level of the study program.

IV Data transfer, data processor

The recipient of the data transfer is the NDGAP. The IC communicates with the recipient through the secure electronic mail system used by the University.

The University does not engage any data processor for this data processing.

V Rights of the data subject and their enforcement

In the course of data processing, the University guarantees the data subjects the following rights:

- a) Right to transparent information [Articles 12-14 of GDPR]: the data subject has the right to receive information about the processing of their personal data and all related information before the processing begins. By publishing this Notice electronically, the data controller ensures that the data subject can access it at any time, as the information is continuously available on the Apply online! - University of Miskolc.
- b) Right of access to personal data [Article 15 of GDPR]: the data subject may request information in writing, including by electronic means, about the processing of their personal data and may inspect it. At the request of the data subject, the data controller shall provide information at any time on the data processed by it concerning the data subject, the source of the data, the purpose of the data processing, the legal basis, the duration, the circumstances of any data protection incident, its effects and the measures taken to remedy it, and, in the case of the transfer of the data subject's personal data, the legal basis and recipient of the data transfer. The data controller facilitates the exercise of this right by publishing the document entitled "Request for information on the processing of personal data" on the University's website, under the menu item "Public interest data/Data processing/Documents related to data processing" (University of Miskolc | Data processing - University of Miskolc). This enables the data subject to submit a request with the appropriate content when exercising their rights. The data controller accepts all requests that clearly indicate that the data subject is exercising one of their rights and that allow the data subject to be identified beyond doubt. The data subject may also submit such requests electronically to the data protection officer specified in Section II of this Notice.
- c) Right to rectification of personal data [Article 16 of GDPR]: the data subject may request the rectification, modification or supplementation of their personal data without undue delay if it contains inaccurate information.
- d) Right to erasure of personal data [Article 17 of GDPR]: the data subject is entitled to request from the controller the erasure of personal data concerning him or her without undue delay, except in cases of mandatory data processing, if one of the conditions set out in Article 17(1) of GDPR is met. In the event of the erasure of personal data, the data controller, taking into account available technology and the cost of implementation, shall take reasonable steps – including technical measures – to inform any further data controllers or data processors processing the data. The controller shall have the right to restrict the right to erasure or to refuse to erase the data if one of the conditions set out in Article 17(3) of GDPR applies. Such a case is when the personal data are no longer necessary for the purpose for which it was originally collected or otherwise processed; if the data subject objects to the processing of the data on the basis of Article 21(1) of GDPR and there is no overriding legitimate reason for the processing; if the data subject objects to the processing pursuant to Article 21(2) of GDPR; if the personal data have been unlawfully processed; or if the data must be erased for compliance with a legal obligation in Union or Member State law.

- e) Right to restriction of processing [Article 18 of GDPR]: the data subject may request the restriction of the processing of their personal data if:
- ea) the data subject contests the accuracy of the personal data; in this case, the restriction applies for a period enabling the controller to verify the accuracy of the personal data;
 - eb) the processing is unlawful and the data subject opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of their use instead;
 - ec) the controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by the data subject for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims;
 - ed) the data subject has objected to the processing; in this case, the restriction applies for a period until it is determined whether the legitimate grounds of the controller override those of the data subject.

Where processing is restricted, such personal data shall, with the exception of storage, only be processed in the following cases: with the consent of the data subject; for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims; for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal entity; for reasons of important public interest of the European Union or of a Member State.

- f) Right to object [Article 21 of GDPR]: The data subject has the right to object at any time, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, to the processing of personal data concerning him or her. In this case, the data controller shall no longer process the personal data unless the data controller demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights, and freedoms of the data subject, or for the establishment, exercise, or defense of legal claims. The right to object is primarily relevant in the case of legal bases other than consent.
- g) Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, right to a judicial remedy, and right to lodge a complaint [Article 77 of GDPR]: If any data subject has any comments in connection with the University's data processing or feels that the processing of their personal data is unlawful, please contact our data protection officer in the first instance. In the event of a legal dispute, you may take legal action. You may also bring an action before the court with jurisdiction over your place of residence or temporary domicile, at your discretion. In addition, you may lodge a complaint with the National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (registered office: 1055 Budapest, Falk Miksa utca 9-11., mailing address: 1363 Budapest, Pf. 9.; tel.: 06-1-391-1400, website URL: <http://naih.hu>; e-mail address: ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu).

Requests to exercise the rights of the data subject must be submitted to the data controller's postal address or to the email address adatvedelem@uni-miskolc.hu. The data controller will provide information in writing as soon as possible, but within a maximum of 25 days (or 15 days in the case of an objection).

VI Miscellaneous provisions

This Notice shall be interpreted in accordance with the Data Protection and Data Security Regulations in force at any given time.

All employees acting under the control of the University of Miskolc, as data controller, are bound by a duty of confidentiality regarding the personal data that came to their knowledge within the scope of their employment. Persons acting in this capacity may proceed during data processing solely in accordance with the instructions of the University, unless they are required to deviate from the instructions by Union or Member State law.