

Call for Applications

Within the framework of the Pannónia Scholarship Programme, the University of Miskolc announces a call for applications for long-term student mobilities for the academic year 2026/2027, as well as for study mobilities for the spring semester of the 2026/2027 academic year.

1. Objective of the call:

The purpose of this call is to provide students of the University of Miskolc with the opportunity to study, undertake internships, or engage in research activities abroad with the support of a scholarship.

2. Eligibility criteria:

Applications are open to students of the University of Miskolc who have an active student status and have completed at least one semester.

During a degree programme, a student may spend a maximum of 12 months participating in mobility abroad, or up to 24 months in the case of an undivided (one-tier) degree programme.

3. Application procedure:

Step 1: Declaration of intent to apply

Students planning to submit an application are required to declare their intent in advance by completing the Declaration of Intent to Apply form. Failure to do so will render the student ineligible to submit an application.

Step 2: Submission of the application

Students are eligible to submit an application if their proposals have been supported at faculty level and they have all the mandatory supporting documents required for submitting the application.

4. Eligible activities under this call for applications:

The student should review the eligibility criteria and the documents required for the application based on the Call for Applications available on the University of Miskolc website, and should consult with the faculty coordinator regarding their mobility plans.

- If the Faculty supports the student's intention to apply, the student becomes eligible to
- submit an application.
- The student is responsible for obtaining all mandatory supporting documents required for the application.

Application deadline: at least one month before the start of the mobility period.

Application platform: <https://forms.cloud.microsoft/e/VcqYNntLxP>

Detailed information on submitting the application is available in Section 9.

5. Host institution:

- a. Study-related mobility can be carried out on the basis of any institutional bilateral agreement (Pannónia, Erasmus+, MoU).

The partner university confirms its willingness to host the student by co-signing the student's Learning Agreement and issuing a Letter of Acceptance.

The list of partner institutions is available through the application and declaration of intent platforms.

- b. Research mobility and traineeships do not require an institutional-level bilateral agreement.

6. Eligibility criteria:

- The student must hold an active student status at the University of Miskolc throughout the entire application and mobility period, i.e. they must be pursuing a degree programme leading to the award of a diploma. The student must have completed at least one semester.
- Students holding a Stipendium Hungaricum (SH) or a Scholarship for Christian Young People (SCYP) grant are not eligible to apply for long-term mobility.
 - SCYP: Operational Regulations III. 9.2
 - SH: Operational Regulations III. 3. 5. f
- The student submits the Declaration of Intent to Apply form by the deadline, and the Faculty supports the student's intention.
- The student obtains and uploads all required application documents according to Sections 7 and 8.
- The student prepares their application, which must be academically endorsed by the student's faculty through the co-signature of the Learning Agreement or Student Mobility Agreement. The application must pass the formal check of the IRO.
- The applicant must possess the level of language proficiency required by the host institution.
- The student is required to have valid health insurance in the host country throughout the entire mobility period. It is the student's responsibility to obtain the health insurance and ensure that it remains valid for the entire duration of the mobility. All costs related to the insurance are borne by the student. Citizens of European Union Member States are advised to obtain a European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) and to check its validity before the start of the mobility period.

In case of a traineeship, in addition to health insurance, the student must also have valid accident insurance and liability insurance covering the entire mobility period. If these insurances are not provided by the host institution/organisation, the student is required to obtain them at their own expense.

- At the end of the mobility period, before returning home, the student must request a document from the host institution (Certificate of Attendance and in case of study-mobility Transcript of Records) certifying the completion of the mobility. This document must be uploaded to the reporting platform within 30 days after the end of the mobility.
- Following the scholarship period, the student must submit a report via the reporting platform, containing the activities, outcomes and documents of the mobility.
- In case of research mobility, following the scholarship period, the student must also prepare a research report, which includes the activities and results of the mobility period. The report must be approved by the student's supervisor and the head of the department/institute responsible for the programme. The fully signed report must be uploaded to the reporting platform.

7. Mandatory attachments for application submission:

- For all three types of mobility, a Certificate of Student Status and a Letter of Acceptance are required.
- The Letter of Acceptance must include the host institution's official website, contact details (e.g. email address, telephone number), official details of the host institution, the signature of its representative, as well as the purpose of the mobility, the name of the professional supervisor, and their responsibilities in connection with the mobility. In the case of study-related mobility, only higher education institutions may be selected as host institutions.
- For study mobility: Learning Agreement (LA) signed by the applicant and the faculty.
- For research mobility and internship: Fully signed Mobility Agreement (MA).
- In the case of research mobility, a letter of support signed by the student's academic supervisor at the University of Miskolc.

8. Method of application submission (Step 2)

Applications must be submitted by completing the application form and uploading the required attachments via the online application platform.

- The data and documents uploaded to the application platform will be formally checked by the competent officer of the Centre for International Affairs (hereinafter: IRO) of the University of Miskolc. Applicants will be notified of any deficiencies to be corrected.
- Applicants will be informed by IRO via e-mail about the outcome of the application. In case of a successful application, the notification will also include the amount of the awarded grant and further instructions.
- In accordance with the University of Miskolc's Regulations on Foreign Assignments and Hosting of Guests, the prerequisites for departure are Document No. 1 and Annex 1/A to be completed and fully signed (including by the Vice-Rector) and submitted to the Dean's Office for approval. The faculty registers the documents and forwards them to IRO for authorization of the student's departure.
- Following authorization, the responsible administrator of the IRO will provide information about the date of contract signing once all required documents have been received.
- The applicant must book an appointment with the competent officer of IRO to conclude the grant agreement.
- Prior to the conclusion of the grant agreement, the applicant must send the insurance documents by email to the officer of IRO.
- The grant agreement will be concluded at IRO.
- Once all documents are fully signed and submitted, the transfer of funds will be executed within three weeks following the receipt of the final document.

Provision of false information

Applicants submitting false data or documents will be excluded from the application process.
