

The University of Miskolc announces a call for applications for short-term student mobilities to be implemented in the 2026/2027 academic year within the framework of the Pannónia Scholarship Programme.

1. Objective of the call:

The purpose of this call is to provide students of the University of Miskolc with the opportunity to study or engage in research activities abroad with the support of a scholarship.

2. Eligible applicants:

Students must hold active student status at the University of Miskolc throughout the entire application and mobility period, i.e. they must be pursuing a degree programme leading to the award of a diploma.

3. Application deadline:

Continuous, until funds are exhausted and based on the partner institutions willingness to host students.

4. Activities eligible under this call for proposals:

- Study mobility (2–10 days) during the whole academic year 2026/2027:
For students of Higher Education Vocational Training, Bachelor, Master's, Undivided, and PhD programmes.
 - E.g., active participation in conferences, participation in summer university, intensive courses,
 - For students of Bachelor, Undivided and Higher Education Vocational Training with at least one completed semester.
 - For students of Master's and PhD programmes starting from the first semester of their studies.
- Research mobility (2–10 days) during the whole academic year 2026/2027:
 - In case of Bachelor studies: at the end of the programme, in connection with thesis-related courses
 - In case of Undivided studies: after at least 7 completed semesters
 - In case of Master's and PhD level: starting from the first semester of their studies.

5. Host institution:

- a. Pannónia study mobilities can be implemented on the basis of any institutional bilateral agreement (Pannónia, Erasmus+, MoU). The partner university confirms the mobility by signing the student's Learning Agreement or Mobility Agreement.

The list of partner universities is accessible through the Application Platform.

b. Institutional level bilateral agreement is not required for the following types of mobilities:

- Research mobility
- Short-term student mobility, with active participation in conferences
- Short-term mobility for study purposes if the host institution is not a Higher Education Institution.

6. Eligibility criteria:

- Students must have active student status at the University of Miskolc for the entire duration of the application and mobility period, i.e. they must be pursuing studies leading to a degree.
- Students holding a Stipendium Hungaricum (SH) or a Scholarship for Christian Young People (SCYP) grant are eligible to apply for short-term mobility. Scholarship students are allowed to submit one application for short-term mobility per academic semester.
 - SH: Implementation Guide III. 3. 2. c, III. 3. 5. f.
 - SCYP: Operational Regulations III. 9.2.
- The collection and submission of all required application documents in accordance with the requirements detailed in Sections 7 and 8.
- The application has been approved by the faculty with the signed Learning Agreement or Mobility Agreement. The application has met the requirements of institutional formal review.
- The applicant must upload to the Application Platform a document confirming the host institution's willingness to host the mobility (e.g. signed Learning Agreement, Mobility Agreement, and Letter of Acceptance; in case of research mobility, recommendation letter signed by the student's academic supervisor).
- The applicant's language skills met the requirements of the host party.
- A maximum of 12 months of mobility may be undertaken during one study cycle; in the case of undivided single-cycle programmes, the maximum duration is 24 months.
- Before starting the mobility, the student must upload the fully signed Learning Agreement or Mobility Agreement to the Application Platform. By signing, the faculty confirms that the activities carried out by the student will be accepted and fully recognised as part of the curriculum, proportionally to the duration of the mobility. The activities pursued during the mobility must align with the student's curriculum.

- The student is required to have valid health insurance in the host country throughout the entire mobility period. It is the student's responsibility to obtain the health insurance and ensure that it remains valid for the entire duration of the mobility. All costs related to the insurance are borne by the student. Citizens of European Union Member States are advised to obtain a European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) and to check its validity before the start of the mobility period.
- At the end of the mobility period, before returning home, the student must request a document from the host party certifying the completion of the mobility (Certificate of Attendance, or in case of study mobility, Transcript of Records). This document must be uploaded to the Reporting Platform within 30 days after the end of the mobility.
- After the mobility, the student must fill out the online Reporting Platform, which includes the activities and outcomes of the mobility.
- In case of research mobility, following the scholarship period, students are also required to prepare a research report describing the activities carried out and the results achieved during the mobility period. The report must be approved by the student's academic supervisor and the head of the department/institute responsible for the study programme. The fully signed report must be uploaded to the Reporting Platform.

7. Application process:

1. The applicant shall review the eligibility criteria and the required application documents based on the Call for Applications available on the University of Miskolc website.
2. The applicant is responsible for obtaining the mandatory supporting documents required for the application.
3. The applicant contacts the relevant Faculty Coordinator to discuss the faculty's professional requirements for the planned mobility, the host institution, and the conditions of recognition. The applicant prepares a Learning Agreement or a Mobility Agreement based on the discussion.
4. The completed Learning Agreement or Mobility Agreement shall be submitted by the applicant to the Faculty Coordinator for faculty review. If the mobility is approved by the faculty, the faculty shall support the applicant with signing the Learning Agreement or Mobility Agreement. The Learning Agreement or Mobility Agreement shall be signed by the Faculty Coordinator and the Dean or Vice-Dean.

If the Dean or Vice-Dean holds the position of Faculty Coordinator, the same person shall be entitled to sign the document in two different positions.

5. The student sends the Learning Agreement or the Mobility Agreement to the host institution for signing.
6. Letter of Acceptance must be attached to the application.
7. If the applicant is supported by their faculty, they shall submit the application with the necessary and mandatory attachments.

Application Platform: <https://forms.office.com/e/VcqYNntLxP>

Detailed information on the submission of the application is available in Section 9.

8. Mandatory attachments for application submission:

Mobility for studies: Fully signed Learning Agreement (LA)

Mobility for research: Fully signed Mobility Agreement (MA).

In case of research mobility, a recommendation letter signed by the student's academic supervisor.

For all types of mobility:

- Certificate of active student status.
- Letter of Acceptance must be attached to the application.

Content of the Letter of Acceptance:

The Letter of Acceptance must include the official website of the host institution, contact details (e.g. email, phone number), official institutional data, the representative's signature, as well as the purpose of the mobility, the name of the academic supervisor, and a description of their responsibilities related to the mobility.

9. Submitting the Application:

Applications must be submitted by completing the Application Platform and uploading the required attachments. The application is recommended to be submitted at least one month before the planned mobility period.

- The data and documents uploaded to the Application Platform will be formally checked by the competent officer of the Centre for International Affairs of the University of Miskolc. Applicants will be notified of any deficiencies to be corrected.
- Applicants will be notified by the Centre for International Affairs via e-mail about the outcome of the application. In case of a successful application, the notification will also include the amount of the awarded grant and further instructions.
- In accordance with the University of Miskolc's Regulations on Foreign Assignments and Hosting of Guests, the pre-requisites for departure are Document No. 1 and Annex 1/A to be completed and fully signed (including by the Vice-Rector) and submitted to the Dean's Office for approval. The faculty registers the documents and forwards them to the Centre for International Affairs for authorization of the student's departure.
- Following authorization, the responsible administrator of the Centre for International Affairs will provide information about the date of contract signing once all required documents have been received.
- The applicant must book an appointment with the officer of the Centre for International Affairs to conclude the Grant Agreement.
- Prior to the conclusion of the Grant Agreement the applicant must send the insurance documents and the visa (if required by the host country) by e-mail to the officer of the Centre for International Affairs.
- The Grant Agreement will be concluded at the Centre for International Affairs.
- Once all documents are fully signed and submitted, the transfer of funds will be executed within 3 weeks following the receipt of the final document.

10. Providing false information:

Applicants providing false information or documents will be excluded from the application process.
